Could your road be leading you to the Catholic Church at the Basilica of the Sacred Heart of Jesus?

The early Church offered to those interested in the Christian way of life a period of inquiry and formation known as the “catechumenate”. This same opportunity is offered to you at Sacred Heart. This process now known as the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is for:

- Christians baptized in other Christian traditions (not in full communion with the Catholic Church)
- Those who have not been baptized at all
- Those who are wondering how the Catholic Church might relate to their faith journey
- Those with specific questions
- Those who are just curious
- Those who feel a definite pull to the Catholic Church

The process involves a nine-month program of Sunday morning discussions and liturgies (September – May) designed to help participants make an informed decision about Catholicism and grow in their faith life. This is about discernment and respectful dialogue - not proselytizing, pressure or elitism. Those who choose to do so, having been prepared, will receive the sacraments of initiation at Easter 2011.
